

"It was hard because it was my first role, but I think this challenge was a success for me."

"At first, I was very nervous, but with my friends, by my side, I quickly calmed down, and "So everything was alright!" (a reference to the phrase "And so everything was alright!" from the play. - editor's note)."

A look at the answers of both actors confirms what Miss Camila said about the busyness of the circle participants.

Bredikhin Kirill, as he said, "engineer from the top of my head to the bottom of my feet", can spend a huge amount of time in the workshop, creating various projects. The creative trait in the young actor is also manifested in music and literature: he perfectly plays the rock guitar, likes to listen to heavy metal, loves to read and write something. For the future development of these skills, he does not exclude the possibility of publishing some of his work. Besides, sport is an integral part of his versatile leisure time. Abdrashitova Dayana expresses her abilities in her love of music, singing, and drawing. Now she is a member of the school music group, officially attends Art classes, had a few official exhibitions of pictures that she takes as a photographer, and writes articles for the school magazine (the section "Under a microscope").
