

A photograph of four performers on a stage. From left to right: a woman with long dark hair in a black dress; a woman with long light-colored hair in a black dress; a man with short blonde hair in a black t-shirt and pants, holding a large white pom-pom; and a man with short dark hair in a black t-shirt and pants. They are all in various stages of motion. The background is dark, and the stage floor has some purple lighting.
