

Mindful Reading Club

Author: Ruslan Levochkin

Our school is full of various exciting activities and CCAs that you can attend after school with your friends and like-minded people. Some have become a school tradition that many students are loyal to, while others are just gaining momentum but are already receiving the love and appreciation of the students.

One such "innovation" in extracurricular activities has been the Mindful Reading Club. Classes conducted by Bulat Alferdovich Khanov, a famous writer and literary critic of our city, are suitable for lovers of reading, discussions and literature in general.
